Years 5 and 6 of Grade Ruan School at their last sailing session of the season. As it was their last week they decided to dress as pirates and they showed their sailing prowess by sailing around flag markers to finally reach the pontoon where they raised the Jolly Roger! A big thank you to The Children's Sailing Trust for giving the children this incredible opportunity.

Noticeboard

In America November is the month of Thanksgiving, a time to be with family and special friends. Many have been lost through the pandemic without the opportunity for their lives to be celebrated so if you want to remember someone see What's On for the event being held on 21st November in the Village Hall.

A fairly big bird told me that our Distribution Manager, David Gascoigne and his wife Janet celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on 23rd October. Quite an achievement - congratulations to them both!

Hopefully things are returning to normal and we will be able to have a more normal celebration this Christmas which is fast approaching.

Christmas Greetings

The next issue of the Gazette will have a Christmas Greetings section as usual. If you would like to put in a message, let us have this, along with a minimum donation of £5 (more if you're feeling generous!), by 18th November. You can put it in the "Magbox" at The Store in Ruan Minor, or drop it in the letter box at Linden Lea in Ruan Minor.

If you would like to do things electronically, then email your message to:

graderuan.gazette@btinternet.com

and make your donation (with a suitable reference please) online to:

Sort Code: 40-24-06

Account Number: 81100750

This year's donations are in support of the Roof Appeal for Grade Church with a target of £100,000 but an overall target of £300,000 for the complete restoration.

Don't forget that the December issue is combined with January so, if you want to contribute anything, you should do so by 18th November, otherwise it will have to wait until the February issue. .

Sally Watts
Co-Editor

From the Endean family

Ron, David and Sharon would like to thank everyone who sent cards, messages and kind words after the unexpected passing of our dearest Elizabeth Endean. As you would expect it has come as a great shock to us all leaving a void which will never be filled. The funeral will be at Mullion Methodist Church on Tuesday 2nd November at 11am.

From David Gascoigne

I would like to thank all the wonderful Distributors who support the Gazette by delivering the Gazette year in year out whatever the weather. It really is

A big thank you is given to Claire and her team at the shop and at the farm shop for keeping us so well supplied (and delivered if asked) during lockdown and beyond. From the Friends of St Ruan and St Grade Historic Church Buildings

We would like to thank St Mary's Church for their very kind donation to our roof appeal in the sum of £260 raised at their sale on the 3rd October. It was extremely generous of St Mary's to support us in this way. We would also like to thank Will and Cathy Bowman for their donation of £100. The current total of sums raised/pledged is now over £40,000!

From the Village Hall Committee

We would like to thank everybody who attended our AGM on 12th October. It was a fantastic turnout. We would like especially to thank our retiring Chairman, David Endean, for his dedication and hard work for the Village Hall over the last decade and more. We will all miss him.

We are delighted to welcome three new trustees, Trish Cowie, Mickey Harding and Maggie Weaver. We now have many offers of help in the kitchen as well so we hope to be able to ensure that volunteers are not called on too often. Any one else who is interested just let us know.

From the Friends of St Mary's Church

Unfortunately we have had to cancel the AGM planned for 3rd November. This will now take place on Tuesday 11th January 2022 at 7 pm and we look forward to seeing you there.

THE SINKING OF THE CITY OF GHENT, NOVEMBER 15TH 1955

by Jocelyn Jane

I was 13 years old on that dark night when my mother woke me with the word Lifeboat! Everyone in our family knew the urgency of that one word. I was out of bed and dressed in a shot.

Father, Henry Jane, who was the Cox, had gone to the Cove to set off the rockets that would muster crew and helpers. It always amazed me how quickly the men in their big black thigh boots thundered down the hill.

The Cadgwith Lifeboat, Guide of Dunkirk was launched by hand at the time and everyone gave a hand, men and women..

I watched as she skid over the greased timbers into the sea. The drama that was playing out of the Cove was lit by flares. The Lifeboat took off the remaining crew and took in tow the rowing ship's lifeboat. By this time all the locals were gathered on the beach to help the crew ashore. As we watched, the the City of Ghent turned over and sank, all within 7 minutes.

As the ship's lifeboat came ashore I grabbed the gunwale and helped a young lad ashore. He was so pleased to be safe on dry land that he threw his arms around me and hugged me. He was only wearing striped pyjamas, trousers and a life jacket. He searched his pockets and came up with an Irish penny which he gave to me. I have treasured that penny for many years.

Eileen who was a teenager told me that the crew chatted to them and gave them cigarettes. She said she kept the packet.

The crew were all taken to the pub for food and liquid refreshment!

A picture of the Guide of Dunkirk being launched - in the daylight - in 1957.

WELL DONE WILL!

Will Trewin had his league debut at home for Redruth RFC against Leicester Lions on September 4th. Redruth won 27 - 5 and the match and Will's performance was reported in The Rugby Paper. William was named Man of the Match for his first ever game a truly amazing result! He has been training with Redruth since last summer after leaving Cardiff Metropolitan University. # Old School Photograph

Thanks to Ann Adkin who has sent in this old photo and thought there may be a few people still around who will remember many of the pupils and the headmaster, Mr Richards.

Ann recognises just a few of the boys. She is sure someone will remember them all.. If you can then do get in touch with the Gazette through the Mag Box in the shop or by contacting us via our email address: graderuan.gazette@btinternet.com

The girls ;sitting on chairs from the left : ?? Dawn Barber, Rose Bolitho, Margaret Barber, ?? Susie Roberts. Ann Tripp. ?? Shirley Merrett. Eileen Rogers.

Sitting on the floor: Patsy Outhwaite, Margaret Green, Ann Rogers (me!)

If you recognise the 'missing girls' then get in touch as Ann Adkin would love to know.

We love receiving these trips down memory lane, isn't it interesting, there doesn't seem to be a set uniform, it all seems very relaxed!

Rector's Ramblings

This year, 'remembering' will have a deeper significance for many – locally, nationally and globally – because of Covid and lockdown. Up until recently, bereaved families could not have a full funeral service for their loved ones – either in church or in a crematorium - or have an opportunity to join with others to comfort one another in their grief.

So, on Sunday 21st November, 3pm, in Ruan Minor Village Hall, there will be an informal gathering - 'Remembering loved ones': an opportunity for tributes to be made; memories shared; candles lit; poems read; prayers prayed; and favourite pieces of music played - in memory of those who have passed. All will be welcomed. Do give Nicky Jose a call (01326 290073) or me to find out more.

This month, on Armistice Day and on Remembrance Sunday, we will honour those who have sacrificed their lives in war. 'In Flanders' fields the poppies blow between the crosses, row on row, that mark our place: and in the sky the larks, still bravely singing, fly scarce heard amid the guns below.' John McCrae's poem soon came to symbolise the sacrifice of all who died in World War One. Today, the poppy remains a tangible symbol for those who have sacrificed their lives in later conflicts.

But why do we need to remember? 'They will beat their swords into ploughshares and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not take up sword against nation, nor will they train for war anymore.' (Micah 4:3). Writing 700 years before Christ, Micah spoke at the time when Samaria fell due to the aggression of Assyria. However, he prophesied a future of hope, a world where nations come together in peace rather than war. His words are fulfilled in the kingdom of God established by Jesus.

Our understanding of peace is more than simply the absence of conflict. It is about building relationships between people, communities and nations, founded on love and justice for all. As we remember those who died in war, we should look practically at how we can build such relationships - beginning with our own families, colleagues and neighbours. 'We will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever.' (Micah 4:5).

Let's ask God's Holy Spirit to make us people of peace, justice and compassion for today's world.

Recreation Ground News

See us on Facebook:
"Grade Ruan Recreation Ground"

First/biggest item to let you know about - our "Grand Firework Display" is on again this year! As with the last few years, the display will be provided by expert pyro-technician Roddy - so should be a spectacular display, easily the biggest for miles around! The Display will be on Saturday the 6th November at 7pm. We will be opening the gates (and bar!) from about 5pm. Entry prices will be adults £3, children £2 and "family" (up to 2 adults and 4 children!) £10. There will be a BBQ run by the football club and we will also be selling glow sticks and mulled wine. We have decided that this year the profits will be split between the Rec and other Village "good causes" - so please come along and support this event - you won't regret it!

As usual at this time of year, we have more weekly activities in the Pavilion - exercise classes with Sam Jane, yoga classes with Ellie Roberts, Monthly Book Club with Mary Keely, Quiz Night every Monday (although when the Village Hall quizzes re-start, we'll skip the weeks when they have theirs!), Fish & Chips (and bar!) every Friday, then there are the football matches on Saturday afternoons and cards/darts on Thursday evenings. It's a busy season ahead of us.

For the exercise/yoga classes and the book club, you will have to contact the organisers for details - but everything else is open to anyone who wants to turn up! There is a notice at the Pavilion giving all the scheduled match dates.

Meanwhile, we are making some slow progress with the kitchen. We have moved things around a little to make best use of the space, and have agreed to purchase a new fridge and freezer, to fit under one of the tables (the old fridge/freezer will be "retired" - it's been moved to a temporary new location, but if it's of any use to anyone please let us know and you can have it when we're finished). A local resident very kindly offered to fund the new freezer, after seeing last month's Gazette - for which we are most grateful! We have also purchased an "air fryer" so we can speedily cook snacks like chips for quizzes etc. without the mess and fuss of fat frying.

We have decided to defer any decisions on combi-ovens or fryers until we've gained a season's experience with what we have - only then can we properly consider what else we might need. We need to organise some more shelves and storage boxes, and there's a couple of alterations to the electrics and location of the sink, but other than that I think that's all we plan for the time being!

We will be appealing on facebook for some additional helpers for the Firework Display, and we are always looking for additional volunteer bar staff - if you're interested, please get in touch!

Many thanks for your continuing support.

Ruan Minor Afternoon Book Club

by Brian Jenkins

On Tuesday 12 October, in the perfect setting of the Pavilion on a , sunny afternoon, the newly-formed Ruan Minor Afternoon Book Club gathered for the first time.

More than 20 people attended, and we first of all had the treat of listening to local author Jenny Scolding, as she revealed what inspired her two children's books featuring Percy Pengelly, the intriguing background to her memoir Vagabond Girl, and some of the unexpected problems and pitfalls facing an author. Jenny concluded by reading us her enchanting short story, The Gift. The enthusiastic response to Jenny's fascinating talk makes us wonder whether we might invite other local authors in the future. Volunteers welcome!

There followed a short quiz on the theme of 'famous first lines of novels', before we turned to the question of what we should read in preparation for our next session. We opted for two titles, with members invited to read just one or both. Under the heading of 'classic fiction' we chose Rebecca by Daphne du Maurier, and under 'crime fiction' we chose Troubled Blood by Robert Galbraith (aka J.K.Rowling), the latest in the series about Cornish private investigator Cormoran Strike.

The plan is to meet on the second Tuesday of each month. Our next sessions are on Tuesday 9 November and Tuesday 14 December, 1 – 3 pm in the Pavilion. Please remember this is not a women-only Book Club, ALL are welcome!

Friends of Kennack Sands

Thank you to all those who helped with the Kennack Sands beach clean held on Sunday 3rd October. We had 11 volunteers in total. Thank you so much.

This month we have collected approx 7 black bags of waste, lots of dog poo and bags of dog poo, human excrement and soiled tissues, wooden pallet, abandoned beach chair, cardboard, discarded litter including tissues and drink cans were in the dog waste bin. Generally, the amount of litter has decreased in the last month.

Sadly, John who coordinates the monthly beach cleans and also helps keep the beach clean each week on a regular basis is stepping down from his role. He has done an amazing job and will be very much missed! Thank you John.

We are looking for an interested person to take on this role and help coordinate the Sunday beach cleans.

THE LIZARD LIFEBOAT VISITOR CENTRE NEWS

By David Gascoigne, Visitor Centre Manager

On the dark and 'difficult' morning of 24th November 1900, the 424 ton barque 'Glimt', of Stavanger in Norway, was 3 months out of Rosario, Central Argentina en route to Falmouth for orders and loaded with 600 tons of wheat. The vessel was tacking before a moderate breeze and very heavy ground sea when, in attempting to turn about, she 'missed stays' and drove aground on Enoch Rock, part of Stag Reef, a half mile off Polpeor.

THE STRICKEN BARQUE 'GLIMT' ENOCH ROCK, STAG REEF, POLPEOR

The 'Glimt' was of wooden construction and she began to break up at alarming speed. Against the captain's orders, six of the crew launched a boat and pulled away intent on saving themselves; not stopping to think of the remaining crew of five and their safety. The coastguard had noted the 'Glimt's' increasingly dangerous situation and had made an effort to warn her away from the treacherous reef. An attempt to save those who remained on board was made by rocket apparatus from the cliff top but although one of the three fired lines reached its target, through possible ignorance or fear, it was not hauled home by the wrecked men.

As the 'Glimt' continued to break up, the Lizard and Cadgwith lifeboats were launched and arrived at the scene almost simultaneously. The Lizard boat, 'RNLB Edmund and Fanny', made for a cluster of four of the five remaining crew who were clinging to the stern rail with the heavy seas washing right over them. With extreme difficulty, the lifeboat crew were able to take them off the vessel and away to safety. Cadgwith's lifeboat, 'RNLB Minnie Moon' spotted a survivor moving in the middle of a mass of floating debris. The Minnie Moon's crew were amazed to see that it was the 'Glimt's skipper, Captain Larsen and, fortunately, they were able to throw him a rope, haul him clear and take him to safety. The six men who had left the 'Glimt' against orders kept away from the shore until daylight and were then spotted by fishermen at Coverack who escorted them safely to shore.

The 'Glimt's' cabin boy refused to go back to sea after the horror of the event. He lived in Cadgwith for a few years and was known as Robert Glimt. It is reported that the wreck led to poor attendance all of the following week at Landewednack School with the bigger boys said to be absent and engaged on 'wrecking duties'. It is probably true to say that the local economy benefited somewhat from the most unfortunate event.

The shout proved to be the last service launch of 'RNLB Edmund and Fanny' which was replaced in 1903 by a new boat, 'RNLB Admiral Sir George Back'.

The Lizard RNLI Lifeboat Station

Recent “Shouts”

Saturday 9th October 2021 – An early start for our crew with the pagers sounding at 02.54am.

Following a request from Falmouth Coastguard RNLB Rose launched on service to reports of a vessel with engine failure 11 nautical miles south of The Lizard.

Upon arrival on scene it was ascertained that the 14m pleasure craft with 3 persons on board had suffered a potential contamination of fuel which had disabled the engine.

Under the command of Second Coxswain Darren Thirlaway RNLB Rose began escorting the vessel to Falmouth as some engine power had been restored, though a short time later it was decided a tow should take place as the engine power had failed again.

A tow rope was attached and the vessel was safely taken in to Falmouth harbour, arriving there at 07.00am. The lifeboat arrived back at the station at 08.11am.

Cornwall Air Ambulance

Here in Ruan Minor we have had good reason to be grateful for the Air Ambulance and certainly this summer it was seen several times in the area. It is certainly a cause worth supporting, especially in a County like Cornwall, not to mention the Isles of Scilly, where we can be a long distance from a large/ specialist hospital.

They are announcing their Wonderful Winter Draw with a chance of winning the top prize of £2,000! Other prizes include cash awards of £500, £250, and three prizes of £100, giving plenty of opportunity to win just in time for Christmas.

To enter visit www.raffleplayer.com/cornwallairambulance or visit one of their charity shops.

Extract from John Trewin's report on the Cadgwith Cove Fishing Contest:

With nobody winning the Bass competition the jackpot was rolled over, making the Pollock competition a very large carrot indeed. The evening duly arrived and what a turnout. Boats that had grass growing under them were suddenly pressed into service. The fleet seemed to head to all points of the compass to find a rocky outcrop of kelp that may have harboured a Pollock. I'm sure not a single rock on the ocean floor went without seeing a rubber eel fly past it. Some eels were not so lucky to go past the kelp-strewn rocks; some got into it. Michael Halliday, an ever-present in the competition, was fishing no more than 20 yards away when I saw him locked into a tremendous tussle with a monster from the deep. It was like a scene from Jason and the Argonauts, Michael with rod buckled over the gunnel, half winching, half man-handling this thing which was on the end. I began to think to myself "Michael, if this is a Pollock you are the jammiest thing around". Just then Michael's monster Pollock surfaced. Smiling from ear to ear he held it aloft. It was truly immense, huge, it was the biggest ***** piece of kelp (!) you have ever seen, complete with root and piece of rock. To give Michael his due though, in the middle was indeed a Pollock, not a big one, but a Pollock all the same.

This sounds familiar..... (Anonymous, From November 2001)

SOAPBOX OF THE MONTH RUDENESS

A number of people who run seasonal businesses have complained of how rude, not to say abusive, have become a large proportion of the summer visitors to our isolated rock. Impatience seems to have become enshrined as a virtue along with greed and assertiveness run riot to the point of offence. What do you think we should do about it, I asked a local sage. He thought for a minute, and with a sad expression in his mild blue eyes said politely:

"Tell they B***** to P*** off home."
