Noticeboard

The "What's On" section in this issue is full of events and things to do over the summer. So many people put in so much effort organising these events. I wish everyone fine weather and success with their events.

There is a new Contact under "NUMBERS YOU MIGHT NEED" near the back of the Gazette. It is for Pete McQuie, who is a Public Relations Officer at RNAS Culdrose and is 'first port of call' for local enquiries. In July there were a number of helicopter training sessions in the early hours (midnight to 3 a.m.) over the Ruan and Cadgwith area. Feedback to Pete can help with future Flight Planning. He can also advise about the Fire Tenders using the Lizard main road, and the traffic issues around the base.

The Gazette AGM will be held in the pavilion on Wednesday 12th September. I hope to see many of you there. You needn't worry about being lumbered with jobs to do, all we want is your feedback on the magazine and perhaps some ideas about the layout and content. Hope to see you there, meanwhile enjoy the summer.

From Steve and Helen Holyer

The Holyer family wish to announce that "Rector" Vincent Holyer died peacefully on the 17th July 2018 at Poldhu Nursing Home, aged 89. He was Rector at Grade Ruan from 1964 to 1986. Cadgwith, Ruan Minor and all its parishioners were always very dear to him.

From Sarah Thompson:

I wish to say a very big thank you for the many cards, lovely flowers, good wishes, and generous offers of help, following my car accident in June. Again, many thanks.

From Gill Pollard:

I would like to say a big thank you for the care and attention I received from the Surgery at Ruan Minor and Treliske Hospital. Thank you also to family and friends for hospital visits, cards and flowers, etc. Thank you so much.

degree in Medicine at Newcastle University after 6 years' study, including a year "intercalating" in medical education. Paul attained a First Class honours Degree in History at Bristol University (with a dissertation about Cornish Emigration and engineering expertise abroad). Both the boys started in Year 'R' (Reception) at Grade-Ruan School, as well as attending Mullion Comprehensive and Truro and Helston Colleges.

From Mick and Julia Smith

As we are just coming up to the one year anniversary of moving to Ruan Minor, we think that this is an appropriate time to thank everyone for making us feel so welcome here. Everyone has been very friendly to us, from our immediate neighbours to the people who serve us in the shops, doctors surgery etc. In particular we would like to thank neighbours on either side of our new home at "Krista" who have had to endure three boisterous dogs, and a considerable amount of somewhat noisy work on the bungalow. We have certainly experienced extremes in weather since moving here but are more than happy to accept it for the chance to live in such a glorious part of the country.

CADGWITH REGATTA 2018

SUNDAY 26th AUGUST

(MONDAY 27th AUGUST in the event of bad weather on Sunday)

We have set the dates for Regatta as above with a contingency date for bad weather.

Any help on the day will be greatly appreciated, be it beach, marshalling or helping to run the refreshments etc. Please contact us if you can give us an hour of your time. We are also looking for donations of cakes and raffle prizes.

If you have any cups, Sarah will be contacting you individually, but is happy to receive them from now on at Rooks Nook and would appreciate them all in at least a week before the event, polished and ready for presentation.

Under 16s must wear a life jacket for their rowing / motor events and we ask that everyone is vigilant on the beach during the event. If you are creating a raft (and we hope you are!), please make sure that there is no construction on the top of it that could trap a person in the event of a capsise.

Mostly though, we hope you have a lot of fun and that the weather is kind to us this year.

See you there!

Ruan animal charity sends out August gala invitation – to stop horses going hungry in winter!

Ruan Minor's very own charity for rescued horses and ponies is holding a Grand Summer Fayre in August – to protect its animals from a WINTER food crisis!

Bolenowe Animal Sanctuary was badly hit earlier this year by the worst weather in memory that turned its 30 acres into a muddy quagmire and cost the charity thousands of pounds for bought-in feed, right through into the summer.

"Normally, our 70 horses and ponies can go out in early spring to feed on our fields," a spokesman for the sanctuary explained. "But this year, the winter weather had been so bad that the fields took much longer to recover – and then the long hot dry spell arrived that parched the fields and turned them from mud to desert!

"It all means that we have had to continue to buy in food at high summer prices, with a big knock-on effect on our finances at a time when all charity costs are rising.

"It takes well over £200,000 a year to run Bolenowe. That's around £4,000 a week – or £600 a day."

So to guard against another winter set-back, Bolenowe is hosting a special Sunday gala on August 12th at its home just outside Ruan, near Ruan Major.

"We're inviting everyone to come and meet our four-legged residents, have fun – and at the same time help Bolenowe through the next winter," the spokesman added. "We'd also warmly welcome anyone who would like to help, either by fund-raising, giving a home to one of our carefully-selected ponies, helping on the day or sending a donation. We'd be hugely grateful – and so would our lovely horses and ponies!"

Among the attractions planned on August 12th will be a fun dog show, demonstrations of Bolenowe's gentle horse training that prepares ponies to be rehomed, stalls, games, food and drink and much more. The sanctuary will be open from 11am, entrance will be free, and dogs on leads welcome.

Anyone interested in helping in any way is asked to get in touch by emailing fundraising@bolenowe.co.uk.

Rector's Ramblings

From 'Opportunity Knocks', through 'Strictly', 'The X Factor', 'The Voice', to 'Britain's Got Talent', TV talent shows have become really popular – almost addictive – for Saturday evening's viewing. Actually, 'Opportunity Knocks' was first broadcast in 1949 on the radio (or wireless for us oldies), on the BBC's Light Programme, before moving to Radio Luxembourg in the 1950s.

As always, the talent shows feature contestants of all ages and talents – singers, dancers, comedians, acrobats - performing in front of a panel of judges, in the hope of winning a large sum of money and which possibly will lead to a new career and fame too! Some of the acts are good and entertaining whilst others can be odd, quirky or downright awful! Some contestants reveal a real talent, while others don't. Some contestants have a big ego or an inflated sense of importance and can't understand why they're rejected! Meanwhile, some of the judges are so rude, seeming to want nothing other than to humiliate and demean the contestants.

The Bible tells us that God is our judge. We are on show. He watches us, but He is not looking for the slip-up, the mistakes or waiting to condemn. Our God is all-loving, kind, and forgiving and looks for our potential and He's pleased when we do our best. He looks to help us, to build us up and desires the best from within us.

Since the beginning of Creation, God has chosen all manner of ordinary individuals to fulfil His purposes. Some made mistakes and committed dreadful sins. But even then, God didn't reject them as being worthless. For example: Jesus chose a mixed bunch of disciples with all kinds of flaws, yet they became (with the exception of Judas) the ideal people to spread the Good News about Jesus.

God has a plan for each one of our lives, and we are called to be faithful in serving Him, wherever we are. By God's grace, the Holy Spirit is given to every Christian, and the Spirit equips us for service; and His greatest activity is amongst the ordinary. Under God's influence, what we regard to be natural talents and gifts, can be enhanced and released by His creative energy.

Wow! Isn't that encouraging? We don't have to put ourselves forward and hope to be a winner like contestants on a TV programme. If we give ourselves to God, He will prepare and use us in the way that best suits our gifts and personalities. And each one of us will be a winner!

Blessings

Kynance, Traffic and the Summer

As the summer holidays approach I wanted to put forward the Trust's proposals for dealing with large numbers of people arriving at Kynance this year as we are very conscious of the impact this has had on the local community during the last two summers.

Over the winter we have been in discussion with Landewednack Parish Council and a traffic management sub-group of the council to look at various options for managing the traffic around the Lizard and Kynance. We are still working to find a longer-term solution, but I can confirm that through the summer holidays, with the help of Roland Hill, we will be operating an overflow car park in his field near the entrance to Kynance in the same way that we did last year, once that field has been cut for hay.

We have increased our staffing numbers further and will work hard to keep traffic flowing freely as much as we can, but I can anticipate that there will be days when we just cannot physically get cars through fast enough and I would ask for your patience at these times.

Busy days are very challenging for our staff and they really want to be able to park people well and quickly so that everyone has a pleasant visit. I would be grateful if you have any comments about the traffic or parking situation, that you please direct these to me at the number below and not to our staff on the ground.

Our survey last summer showed that most visitors were finding Kynance through word of mouth and social media. The Trust's own publicity about Kynance is very limited and unfortunately there is little that we can do about social media or other media use of Kynance to promote Cornwall. One thing we have done about publicity is ask Visit Cornwall to not use Kynance in their own publications. Our visitor survey also showed that people are travelling from far and wide in order to reach Kynance, which helps explain their intent on getting there. Cornwall is increasingly busy and our visitor numbers are up across the board, not just at Kynance, so colleagues of mine elsewhere in Cornwall are experiencing similar issues.

I am keen that the Trust plays its part in helping to manage traffic in and around the Lizard and I am keen to work in partnership to achieve this to ensure the best possible outcome for the places, the local community and our visitors. Please do get in touch if you have any comments you would like to make.

Mary's Cottage

A Cadgwith crime novel

By Arnold Küsters

[Arnold Küsters is a German journalist and writer from Mönchengladbach. He has had several novels and dozens of short stories published. He is also an accomplished musician and plays in a German band called Styxx. He visits Ruan Minor and Cadgwith as often as he can. Ed.]

“The engine died the moment the boat hull slipped between the rocks. The walls of the dome-shaped cave amplified the smacking of the dipping rudders. It took him little effort to moor the boat. It rocked as he pulled the heavy bundle over the tailboard onto the rocky ground. Without hesitating, he tugged his freight deeper into the darkness. Further back, there was a natural plateau. It offered enough space for what he was up to.”

These are the first lines of my upcoming new novel “Mary's Cottage”. It will be published by Penguin.

A young woman falls off the cliffs at the Devil's Frying Pan. The police are convinced Victoria's death is an accident. But this her friend Mary won't accept. Mary runs a B&B in her parents' thatched Cadgwith Cottage, and her aunt's local shop.

Mary asks Simon Jenkins to help her. He's a former London police officer and now lives as an artist in Cadgwith. At first, he denies for several reasons. He's quit not only his job, but his former life as well.

When we first came to Cadgwith in 2012, it was purely random. But since then, we fell for the village, and the nature of The Lizard. But most of all we love the residents of Ruan Minor and Cadgwith.

It was Linda Wilkinson, who introduced us to the community. We met her in the Pub on a Folk Night. As well as Paul McMinn, Jeremy Wootliff, Dave J Hearn, Tim Hurst, Martin Ellis, and all the other fine people, i.e. Gary and Helen, Luke, Debbie and Stevyn Collins, Chrissy and Nick. Then we met Mary Keeley and Brian Jenkins.

We are proud, being allowed to be part of their life. Especially of Jan and Joss Morgan's. Jan and Joss are much more than the landlords of our holiday cottage.

When I first met Simon Bradley and his wife Lorraine, I instantly knew, I'd found the stuff for my next novel. I asked Simon if I could pick parts of his life to write my own story, and he agreed. It took me almost a year to write the book. Simon helped me with information about the British police system. Jan told me about Cadgwith history, from Linda I learned about the Antique business "down here", Mary and Brian provided me with everything needed to write a Cadgwith crime novel.

I'm very happy that they all are part of my crime novel, in one way or another. But no one is described 1:1. Mind: it's all fiction.

Coming to Cadgwith now is almost like coming home. There are a lot of things, ideas, waiting to be told in fiction. Unfortunately there is no English version of "Mary's Cottage" planned yet. But, who knows?

Friends of Kennack Update - July 2018

Monthly Beach Cleans

Hopefully you will notice that the beach continues to be remarkably free of rubbish. This is down to the efforts of many of the residents (many thanks), and also the sterling work of the new part-time beach cleaner John Fallows. John has I'm sure made himself known to many of you, and any help in his quest for a litter free beach is gratefully appreciated. This year we have decided to keep the monthly beach cleans going through the summer – so John will be at the beach on the first Sunday of every month at 10am, ready with spare gloves, bags and litter pickers – please give him a hand if you can. The next date is Aug 5th 10am.

Children`s Rockpooling Sessions Every Wednesday

The Friends and Natural England will be hosting a series of Rockpool Rummages at Kennack. Come and discover the fantastic creatures living in the rock pools and learn about the secrets of their survival – Kennack is a wonderful place to discover this underwater world. All ages are welcome, children 15 and under must be accompanied by an adult - £3 per child (adults go free!). Times vary so we can catch the tide at the best moment. See our poster in the “What’s On” section for dates and times.

THE INTERNATIONAL CADGWITH COVE GRAND FISHING COMPETITION

The World Cup proved to be a tense affair with England reaching the semi-finals and it was hot, but not as tense and hot as the Thursday fishing competitions are proving to be this summer. Thursday 12th July was a double-header with Cuckoo Wrasse and Lesser Spotted Dogfish being the target species. Anglers assembled off the cove on a fine warm evening and off they went to the sound of Steve's horn.

The crowd assembled around the winch house at the usual time (8.30pm) for the weigh-in but 'oh no' extra time had been allowed for the first time, amounting to an extra half an hour to fish. There were tense moments as the fish were brought to the scales, with no dead certs for winners like Wimbledon. Cuckoo Wrasse was the first to be weighed. Matilda Phillips was the best junior with a whopping 15oz specimen, followed by Seth and Jamie. Will Bowman led the way for the seniors with Keith 2nd , Danny 3rd, and Liam 4th.

It was then the turn of the Dogfish. This was as close as any penalty shoot out, with Matilda Phillips once again winning, followed by Seth and Jamie matching the earlier results. The seniors proved to be a close call with Ronnie Jane, using all his experience to be 'top dog', with Gary Pollard a close second, and third place going to Steve. There were three anglers all in the 4th spot but no medals here.

We had a great competition, well done all. The coveted Skippers points are being shared around well so far and with four competitions left, the trophy could be won by anyone. The full list of winners will be included in the next gazette. We'll get the board updated in the Cove in the meantime. Many thanks to all who attend and help on the night, and to our sponsors Last Stop, Lizard Baits and the The Watch House.

Recreation Ground News

See us on Facebook:
"Grade Ruan Recreation Ground"

June and July have been a busy time for us - weddings, wakes and festivals (one of each), as well as World Cup TV coverage have made the last couple of months very successful, and a much-needed boost to our finances! As usual we will be running two of the Cadgwith Summer BBQs (and helping out with the others) - hopefully the good weather will continue these will be successful events too. We've also arranged for the Wessex Pistols to perform at the Pavilion on the 18th of August, bringing their own special brand of hillbilly punk for an exciting evening of mayhem and fun!

At long last, we're starting work on some of the projects that I've been talking about. By the time this magazine is published, we should have completed the first phase of acoustic treatment for the main room - hopefully this will have tamed the echoes a bit! At the same time we should have completed the insulation of the roof of the cellar - leading to lower wastage and better quality of the beers we serve, although additional cooling will probably be needed. Also going on at the same time are works to improve the field - a new land drain along the front edge of the field, with a new soak-away, then building up the ground levels with some decent topsoil, followed by seeding the new areas. And finally, but not least, the kitchen - install the extractor hood, along with ducting and vent, gas safety interlock system, lining the walls in the cooking area, re-siting some of the electrics and re-positioning the sink.

Once these works are completed, we can purchase the appliances needed and some additional work tables - all on a finance deal to spread the cost.

Along with planning to complete the kitchen, we have been considering how to manage it in the future. We have decided that the best way forward is to appoint a manager to run the kitchen as an independent unit, paying a small rent to the Rec, but otherwise operating as a self-contained business. We would want them to sell fish and chips on a Friday evening (as the chip van used to do - and was much-liked by the village), and to provide match-day catering - but otherwise they would be free to offer whatever menus and opening times they choose. They would also be responsible for managing all aspects of food hygiene and management, control of stock and liaison with other users. The person we appoint should have a proven track-record running a commercial kitchen, cafe or restaurant. The post is unlikely to be full-time, and would probably suit best someone with an additional source of income, or recently retired. If you're interested in this role, please get in touch with us to discuss as soon as possible. We would like to be able to appoint someone around the end of August, so we can work with them to install appropriate cooking equipment and appliances, with a view to opening in the Autumn.

There are exciting times ahead for the Recreation Ground and the Pavilion Bar.

Many thanks for your continuing support.

Mike Fleetwood, Chairman.

We are truly passionate about our trade and seek to go that extra mile to deliver what we and many others believe to be the highest standard of thatching in Cornwall. We look past the run down attire of the roof which is essentially compost in its dying days and work to transform the thatch into some of our finest work yet, questioning at every stage how we can improve the design, shape or style to suit the individual buildings heritage.

Grade-Ruan Under 5s

Another school year is over and all are ready for the summer break, let's hope the lovely weather continues!

We have had a busy year with many challenges along the way, as a team however we have conquered and have established a good foundation for moving forward with Grade Ruan Under Fives. We thank everyone for their continued support, whether it is for fundraising or support at times when we needed advice and some words of wisdom to continue!

From September we will be able to offer childcare for under 2's. We have been approached quite often about this and feel that now the time is right to begin to offer this service. We will be holding an open morning on Saturday 4th August 10am-12noon to show our new resources to support the under 2's. All are welcome to pop along, there will toys out for the older children also and refreshments available whilst we have a chat about your childcare needs.

We are getting ready for our Summer Fair as I write; hopefully this will be a big success once again.

Our recent cake sale outside the hall raised a lovely £40 in an hour - thankyou!

Dates for the diary:

Saturday 4th August: Open morning 10-12noon

Monday 10th September: re-open after Summer break.

Monday 17th September: Cake sale 2pm-3.30pm outside the hall.

Friday 21st September: Bags2School Collection in the morning - bags will be available from when we return on the 10th - so have a rummage for anything you no longer need, the last collection was fantastic!

Friday 28th September: Big Breakfast from 730-9am, open to all, stay and eat or grab and go!

Friday 5th October: Health Visitor am

Wednesday 31st October: Halloween Party 4-530pm, at the Pavillion, open to KS1 also.

Friday 16th November: Children In Need - cake sale and other activities - TBC

Saturday 1st December: Christmas Fair 10am-2pm at the village hall.

Wednesday 19th December: Christmas Party 12-3, pre-school only.

Sunday 23rd December: Christmas Film Night 5pm onwards, The Grinch - open to all.

So lots coming up in the first half of our school year to keep us all busy. More information for events will be given in due course. We look forward to seeing you all and thankyou for your continued support. We wish you all an enjoyable Summer.

Melissa Hudson.

QUIZ NIGHT NEWS

June's Quiz saw the heat wave continue within the hall where six teams battled it out for the monthly trophies. It was hard fought with less than 10 points between first and last places. Lorraine Wickens took control of the questions with a selection on Birds of the feathery kind, a picture round on past and present football managers, fun fruit and rings to name a few.

Due to the planned works in the Hall, there will be no quiz in August. See you all on the fourth Tuesday of September - there is always room for more if you are up to the challenge.

Gardening in August and September

by David Endean

It is hard to say what to do now as we have dried up to a frazzle this summer and I would suggest that those of you on the Ruan Riviera will be worse off than us inland souls. The only things that are looking good are the trees: they are lush green, with their deep roots they can still find the moisture and we didn't have those strong winds in the late spring to burn the young leaves. Most other things are quailing or worst still going brown especially Hydrangeas and camellias and when did the lawn last really need to be cut!

What to do now? Well it's a case of keep watering the necessary pots tubs etc. As you are keeping them constantly moist, do not forget to regularly feed them but do not feed plants that are dry in the open ground, as the application of fertilizer could quite possibly do more harm than good with it having a burning effect on the roots of your prized plants. At times like this you look at your lawn with the grass going to gone brown, but you see green patches with tall seed heads or flowers of weeds and it is awfully tempting to give the lawn a boost with an application of Weed and Feed. Alas this is the same as in your open borders: the grass plants themselves will be weak and any application of weed and feed would be likely to do more harm to the grass. Wait until we get a real soaking and the grass itself has greened up again.

Now is the time to do some summer pruning on your apple and pear trees. This is not heavy cutting back but only shortening back of the whippy new growth. Go all around the tree using a good pair of clean cutting secateurs and reduce back the softer growth which has been put on this summer. Cut back so that you leave 3 or 4 new leaves on the stem, and this should encourage the buds to produce fruiting spurs. This job is most important in young trees; mature specimens tend to have less vigour and get on with it and look after themselves. Plus in general it is too big a job to even attempt.

In the vegetable garden, there is little to sow now but harvesting is well under way. There are still a few quick crops which you can sow mainly quick maturing brassicas things like garden turnips, Pak Choi and its oriental siblings, spring green cabbage. There is still time for some salads like radish and spring onions and also lettuce. At this time of year the loose leaved lettuce varieties are the best bet to grow. If you want just those tender baby leaves it really does not matter what type you sow, therefore if you have part of a packet left over give it a go. Young finger type carrots are also worth a shot, sow a quick maturing type like Amsterdam Forcing or Early Nantes and keep well-watered. One added benefit from sowing now you are less likely to be troubled by carrot fly due to their lifecycle. These can be sown outside but even better is in a deep pot or tub in the greenhouse if you have the room. They will take a little more care but you will have more success.

I know it seems as if I am wishing time away, but you have to think of spring displays now therefore I advise getting in some spring bulbs now even if they are not planted for a little while yet. Get them now while the stock is there, either mail order or from the various garden centres. The spring show will be pleased to see a few more entries. Also as a few gaps appear in your flower borders as annuals finish, think about filling the gaps with spring flowering plants like wallflowers, Sweet William, Primroses and pansies/violas. It is too late to sow them now but the local purveyors of such things will be glad of your custom I am sure.

Hedges are growing well and, like most things in life, little and often is best to keep them looking neat and compact. Down here, most hedges seem to grow all year round but try to time it so that your last trimming of leylandii type hedges is somewhere around mid- September. This will give it some time to recover but also toughen up before the winter salt laden winds return to burn the foliage. Later trimming could well lead to the hedge burning.

Well I hope I have given you a few ideas as what to do in the garden as summer draws to a close. Most importantly, do not despair - get out there and enjoy your garden.

29/18 Annual Council Meeting: Minutes 14 May 2018

RESOLVED that the Minutes of the Meeting of the Council held on the above date having been previously circulated, be taken as read, approved and signed. Cllrs Lee/Trewin. Unanimous. No matters arising NOTED.

30/18 Planning Applications for consideration

PA18/04718: Outline permission with some matters reserved: Proposed residential infill to form 2 house plots. Mr And Mrs G Wright. Land Adj To Rosemerryn St Ruan Ruan Minor TR12 7JS

The Council object to the application on the following grounds:

- the proposals are believed not to constitute infill or rounding off as the site is a large gap outside the long-established settlement boundary of St Ruan, and the Council considers this large gap important to establish the setting of the settlement. There is also insufficient buildings surrounding this large site for it to qualify as infill.
- as per above, the proposals therefore constitute development in the open countryside and the erosion of important greenspace that is helping separate St Ruan from Ruan Minor.
- the need for large open market dwellings is not apparent.
- no provision for affordable housing has been mentioned in the plans.

- a new access onto the highway would result in the demolition / destruction of part of an ancient hedgerow and potentially trees also.
- approval would set a damaging precedent for spreading into the open countryside.
- pedestrian access is unsafe as there are no pavements.
- potential to harm the landscape and scenic beauty of the AONB and the rural characteristics of this small tree-lined hamlet.

Proposed and seconded. 6 voted in favour, 1 against.
